

Fire Dancing Live Spectacle in Bulgaria!

NESTINARI - THE BULGARIAN FIRE MAGIC DANCE

Usually beginning of June is the start of the summer ancient festivities – the ritual covers almost whole territory of South East Bulgaria and represents an ancient pagan performance, involving bare foot dancing on live embers inherited by the *Thracians – brings health, success and fertility through the year. It is a unique mixture of Christian beliefs.

SPECIAL HONOR TO THE BULGARIAN MAGIC FIRE DANCE:

Nestinari Nunataks on Livingston Island in the South Shetland Islands, Antarctica is named after the Bulgarian folkloric ritual of Nestinari.

You do not have to go that far away ...to join us and be part of an ancient ritual brought to life especially for you!

Legend:

* The name 'Thracians' first appeared at the end of the second millennium B.C. (according to Homer). 'From that time on this term gradually became the common ethnonym for the inhabitants of the area between the Carpathians and the Aegean Sea, the Black Sea and the valleys of the Morava and Vardar'.
