

THE CSI REPORT

WASHINGTON, DC / BALTIMORE

AUGUST 2009

A Stunning Moonlit Summer Evening

CSI produced an event for 150 very special guests at the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian. Beginning with cocktails in the Patron's Lounge, guests were free to wander through the museum's exhibits of rare artifacts before retreating to the dramatic Potomac Atrium for a truly American menu that included Cherrywood grilled grass-fed beef tenderloin, wild rice salad and harvest corn timbales. With a dramatic moonlit view of the U.S. Capitol dome, this unique museum enhanced this very special evening.
