Dublin now offers a "Futuristic Glide through History"

Join our Segway tour through parts of the Phoenix Park - Europe's largest park - and experience some of the history that has shaped and moulded Ireland. There will be an abundance of photo opportunities with lots of historic buildings, monuments and memorials along with interesting facts and stories.

Go to Belfast

Day Trip to Belfast by private train (2 hours from Dublin) - private interesting city tour taking in all major sights (Titanic Quarter, University, City Hall, Stormont Parliament Building etc.) - enjoy lunch at the famous Crown Liquor Salon - probably the most beautiful pub in the world - travel in local black taxis into the hearts of the 2 diverse communities and experience "living history" and genuine social comment right at street level - or why not join a tour with trained tour guides from the Republican and Loyalist ex prisoner community who give a truly unique insight into the British - Irish conflict and how it has shaped their communities - Dinner at the fashionable Deanes Restaurant - overnight in Belfast or back to Dublin City. I bet you haven't done this before.... ?
