TOP REASONS TO VISIT NEPAL

- Nepal is a peaceful destination. The Nepalese people, as diverse as they are live in harmony - perhaps fatalistic, perhaps content, but they take on the hardship of life with a smile. Hinduism and Buddhism have co-existed so harmoniously in Nepal for centuries.
- Nepal is a destination that will fire up the imagination of the delegates. They can have unique pre- or post-tour programs especially designed to suit the budget, their tastes and interests.
- It offers one of the finest cuisines, sightseeing/excursions programs, adventure activities, enthralling mountain flights, entertainment, shopping and more.
- Nepal is a dream comes true for an organisation that is looking for a new and exciting destination to offer as a special location for MICE.
- Home to the world's highest peak, Mount Everest, the Himalaya Mountains are one of the top reasons to visit Nepal. Nepal is home to eight of the 14 highest peaks in the world.
- Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal is full of incredible sights, sounds, and aromas to embrace. It is overflowing with attractions and activities for you to explore. In fact, seven groups of monuments and buildings in Kathmandu Valley combine to create one of Nepal's four UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Among them are Kathmandu Durbar Square, Patan Durbar Square, Bhaktapur Durbar Square, Boudhanath Stupa, Swayambhunath Stupa, Pashupatinath Temple, and Changu Narayan Temple.
- Considered to be the Amazon of Asia, Nepal is a perfect destination for wildlife lovers. A trip to the lowlands of Nepal enables you to explore a great variety of animals. At the UNESCO World Heritage listed Chitwan National Park, the most popular national park in the country, you will have a chance to spot majestic Royal Bengal tigers, one-horned rhinos, crocodiles, leopards, sloth bears, wild elephants, deer, monkeys as well as up to 544 species of birds.
- Nepal is far from prosperity, but it is a perfect place for people seeking a sense of serenity. A Nepal tour itself is a journey to inner peace. It provides charming, laidback ambience that makes up all the comforts of developed nations.
- Listed as the best value destination by Lonely Planet, Nepal is an excellent choice for budget-minded travellers. Trek trails are also good value for money when you compare with similar setting.
