

DAY ONE

On arrival at Dubrovnik Airport, transfer to the scenic township of Cavtat.

After a traditional welcome snack of dried figs, Dalmatian smoked ham, cheese and local wine; continue by boat to Dubrovnik's Old City, passing pretty seaside villages and the picturesque islands of Mrkan and Bobara.

The most spectacular entrance to the Old City is by the blue Adriatic sea. Stroll along the marbled pedestrian Placa Boulevard, taking in sights, before checking in at hotel.

Welcome dinner showcasing the region's gastronomic tradition at local restaurant.

DAY TWO

Breakfast at hotel.

Set sail for the unspoiled Elaphite Archipelago by traditional Dalmatian wooden boat and see a cluster of islands dotted with pine forests, rustic villages and idyllic bays.

Sip on native Prosek wine and enjoy locally produced snacks, while serenaded by a Dalmatian trio.

On Šipan Island visit the summer home of Dubrovnik's former rulers.

Sail to a second island for lunch at a seafront restaurant with panoramic views; and indulge in a selection of freshly caught seafood.

Enjoy some time at leisure to explore the island.

This day of Adriatic bliss ends with al fresco cocktails and a sunset lit BBQ dinner on one of the island's sandy beaches.

Return to hotel,

DAY THREE

Breakfast at hotel.

Depart by Volkswagen Beetles to Konavle, a fertile valley dotted with olive trees and wineries, visit century-old mills to see flour and olive oil production and taste the delicious results.

Stop for a 'Peka' lunch under the iron bell, while a folklore dance troop provides the perfect ambiance. Coffee and cakes are served in a typical Konavle home.

Back in Dubrovnik, a gala dinner in the stunning setting of Sponza Palace is a fitting end, with delightful sounds of a classical guitarist while dinner is served.

Return to hotel for overnight.
