

DAY ONE

Arrival at Budapest and enjoying a orientation sightseeing tour of Budapest.

We will stop on the Gellert hill where the group can have a complete view over the entire twin cities Buda and Pest separated in its centre by the Danube, conquered by the Elisabeth Bridge and Chain Bridge.

Enjoy the view, a glass of champagne and a "Pogácsa", a Hungarian welcome bite.

Check-in Hotel.

Dinner at Restaurant Belcanto, one of the most original restaurants in Budapest located opposite the State Opera. The "speciality" of the restaurant is the singing and acting waiters, a real treat not to be missed.

DAY TWO

Full buffet breakfast in the hotel.

Depart by coach for visit to the Hungarian Great Plain (Puszta).

Stop in the town of Kecskemet for an official welcome at the Town Hall, with a souvenir bottle of Apricot Brandy and a private concert.

Continue to Lajosmize for a horse show extravaganza.

Lunch at a typical Hungarian Csárda, goulash soup in the kettle, a large selection of roast meats and vegetables and local wines.

Return to the hotel with free time before the evening's events.

Dinner at Restaurant Gundel, Budapest's leading restaurant. Wine tasting in the cellar, followed by dinner in the main restaurant or in one of the private rooms on the first floor to the accompaniment of Gypsy music.

DAY THREE

Full buffet breakfast in the hotel.

Late morning transfer by old-timer tram to one of the most impressive structures of the city; the Market Hall. Enjoy the stunning fantastic market with fish, meats, fruits, vegetables and handicrafts. An informal standing buffet will be set up for lunch with cold meats and salads accompanied by local wines and beers.

After lunch time to relax.

Farewell dinner at the Museum of Applied Arts, which is probably the most beautiful building of the Hungarian Art Nouveau which was finished in 1896.

Fanfare blowers greet the groups. Inside, waiters are serving cocktails, before a master of ceremonies announces that dinner is being served. During the dinner light musical entertainment followed by a classical or traditional show programme.

Afterwards the dance floor is open and concludes an unforgettable evening.

Coach transfer back to the hotel.
