

DAY ONE

Personally welcomed to Dublin, and depart with your to the heart of the city and stop in a typical pub for a welcome drink where a musician or two may just wander in!

On to the hotel, with key distribution on the coach, you will soon be in your comfortable bedroom.

Later this evening get into the mood with a fine dinner and traditional entertainment in the famous Abbey Tavern.

.... and the night is still young!

DAY TWO

Full breakfast at leisure.

Depart South to Co. Wicklow along the way the driver surprisingly stops to pick up a hitch-hiking farmer.

Initially sitting quietly, he soon warms up the environment and breaks into song and mouth organ music to everyone's enjoyment.

Calling for his "stop" and thanking everybody he invites (with persuasion) everybody to his farmhouse for a cup of tea, or a drop of the hard stuff.

Everybody follows into the farmyard to find a lavish buffet set up, country band, farm games and challenges.

Enjoy lunch and entertainment in the countryside.

Return to Dublin late afternoon to rest and relax in your hotel.

Over dinner tonight the prizes are distributed from the Farmyard Challenge.

DAY THREE

Breakfast at leisure.

Free morning to stop and stroll, but then it's off to a local race track for a private lunch. Here we will introduce you to horse racing and an expert tipster will mark your cards.

You can test your judgement on the betting vouchers we give you and bravely move onto your own cash! Enjoy the afternoons racing and the freedom to move throughout the venue, always having your private suite to return to for afternoon tea and the bar.

Gala farewell dinner tonight in Malahide Castle, only 20 km from the city and reserved exclusively for you. Tour the castle, excellent dinner, wines and entertainment it is a great opportunity to sing a few songs yourself too.

Day 4

Breakfast, last minute shopping and transfer to the airport.
