Löwenbräukeller

Nymphenburgerstrasse 2, 80335 Munich

Bavarian, cosy, traditional – and full of life: in our traditional Munich restaurant, the brewer’s room, the lion roars daily from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Typically Bavarian delicacies and varied daily meals are served with Löwenbräu beer specialties.

Due to the extensive renovations during the summer 2008, the restaurant has become much friendlier and brighter and also features a great number of technical innovations. Up to 240 guests can either sit in the traditional-style public bar area or in the more elegant and high-quality part of the restaurant. And for groups of all sizes appropriate premises are available, such as cosy little side rooms and separate small rooms.

Note: The Starkbeerfest is taking place during that period and as the Bennisaal (picture on the right) is located close to the main rooms (Festsaal), music and noise might be hearable in the Bennisaal as well.
